

ON HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE

WANC 844

J

Forasmuch as I make Anthony Buzze have heretofore offered to serve your Ma^{ty} in two yeres of twenty thousand bondstales for the hundredth by number, that is to saye fyve score to the hundredth, six thousand bondstales made savinge the hundred of the hundredth, by the said number, two thousand hundredth, weight of brymstone at the hundredth by the same number and one full of gold whereto is set, a fine and lorde of the penell, one fine of arianell dyamant of the, and one of the current pendant weight all the ounces, and a half a quarter, for two thousand and fyve hundredth poides, to be paid for the same wares and full accordinge as in his poyntes offer is contayned Wherof offer I have wates made to reforme in your good will and favor, and under the name of yo^r Ex^{ty} dyent in the behalf into my content, then for any benefite that shall or will be therof to me, I am content that yo^r Ma^{ty} one daye will have in remembrance my good will

And for that now I have information that if I will serve yo^r grace of the said bondstales at the price of the hundredth and the bondstales made about hundred at the hundredth, the brymstone at the hundredth, accordinge to the price valued by ma^{ty}es brymstone of your Ma^{ty}es orderment, that then it is supposed your Ma^{ty} will have them, and I am also wedy to accomplish, by cause I am desirous to be resolved therof, and as for the full I am content shall remain in the hands of them whom your highnes shall thinke best for the accompyment of this bargayne for the money I have wates presently and my hand besyde, and as for the full I shall have consyded the money therof, that then the same full to be payed by two indifferant of the, that is to saye, the one to be elected by yo^r Ex^{ty} assigne, and the other by me or my assigne, and if the same two cannot agree, then the same two to send a third person, and that third person of the therof agree, then yo^r highnes to direct the same full accordinge to their valuation, and to paye for the same as for the same wares in maner followinge

And forasmuch as I am enformed that it shall not stand in yo^r Ma^{ty}es content presently to disburse wedy money for the therof partly in the same goodes shall amount unto, and will be to my great dyscomodite, yet I will content to receive forthwith a warrant for the same goodes partly, to deduct the same partly aswell of the tynne of here, and other goodes aswell brought into the Realme as to be sold out by me my assignes or friends to be deducted at the rate as strangers do paye for the amounting a thousand four hundredth the score and some poides sterlinge

And for the other partly for that I also will not charge yo^r Ma^{ty} to disburse wedy money I am content to receive the wallo therof in tynne and ware, of the tynne and appoynted to your Ex^{ty} at such price as it hath ben paid lately to others, and also all the ore hydres, Calke stymes, felle and lombe stymes and shall make in yo^r Ma^{ty}es tynne, at the price as others lately have had them, So that I or my assignes maye transport the same goodes out of the Realme about any impedymen^t or charge the tynne as strangers do paye, and to have by the waye a warrant immediately to begin to receive and transport the same

Declarynge to your Ma^{ty} that I or my assignes shall put in sufficient sherties for the wallo of the said goodes as shall be received daily, untill such tyme as I or my assignes shall make consignation of the said brymstone and bondstales

And the other partly at the delivery of the same in ready money

And as forasmuch as the said offer and I have offered to serve for my Ma^{ty} a hundredth poides weight, and your Ma^{ty} will have set the price in the, if it maye be possible to get a licence to transport it from the Realme of Newcastle for the same the wedy in hand, but to be sent upon I or my assignes shall certifie that I will furnish the quantity of the yo^r Ma^{ty} will have, to have the same partly in ready money, and partly in good and sufficient sherties to make consignation and the rest at the delivery therof